March 17th, 1914,

Mr. Ten Broeck Morse,
346 West 71st Street,
New York.

Dear Sir:-

Your letter of March 16th has been duly received, and I assure you we appreciate your kind offer to loan your collection should we have another exhibition of American coins. It is not probable that such another exhibition will be held in the near future as we will probably have exhibitions in various other lines before we can ^{again} get around to the United States series.

Very truly yours,

Director.
